He granted that these parties for a lime "did rally to their support some of the fine, planning, enterprising minds of the country." and said the parties lived only as long as these men had "the concience of public service." As soon, however, as they put in possession of the lovernment men "who were attorneys of special interests the decadence of the party inevitably ensued."

I have declined to give it to them, and now they are going where they think that they can get it. And there is evry indication, on the surface at any rate, that their calculation is well founded.

Negotiations Are Impeded.

There is a more serious aspect even than that. There is an immediate result of this thing, my fellow citizens. From this time until the seventh of November it is going to be practically impossible for the present Administration to handle any critical matter concerning our foreign relation, because all foreign statesmen are waiting to see which way the election goes, and, in the meantime, they know that settlements will be inconclusive.

"And here again we assert, indeed, we cannot reiterate too frequently or too significantly—what every American knows and what every foreigner will at the very least an opertunity to fan quickly learn—that Hughes always means what he says."

The description of the president has given him at the very least an opertunity to fan the biaze of anti-Wilson feeling which is admitted by the Democratic managers to exist among many American voters of Irish and German birth or ancestry.

O'Leary was in Chicago yesterday at

I would feel deeply mortified to have you or anybody like you vote for ms. Since you have access to many disloyal Americans and I have not, I will ask you to convey this message to them.

O'Leary is not directly related to the Mrs. O'Leary whose cow kicked over a language and set Chicago after the set of any other family in the United States: certainly it will compare with the loyalty of the Wilson family."

He mentioned several relatives who had fought in American wars and went the seven or eight years in the National Guard, going in as private and rising to the rank of First Lieutenant. Can Mr. Wilson show a similar record? The loyalty to the United States of our family will compare with the loyalty of the Wilson family."

He mentioned several relatives who

"Mr. Wilson is undountedly irritated because citizens of Irish and German extraction have shown that they are against him for reelection. They are against him and undoubtedly they will defeat him for reelection. They do this defeat him for reelection. They do this because the non-American record of hi-Administration has unquestionably brought the American flag and Ameri-can citizenship to the lowest possible level."

Irish and German birth or ancestry.

O'Leary was in Chicago yesterday at the Kaiserhof Hotel. His brother, John J. O'Leary, a lawyer, of 52 Broadway and president of the Irish Relief Fund Bazaar, advised him by telegraph yesterday to sue President Wilson for libel and slander. At the same time it was announced that Jerenlah O'Leary would hurry back from Chicago to be the principal speaker at a meeting in the Garden Theatre to-night held in the interest of the bazaar.

At this meeting, according to the official word "Mr. O'Leary is expected to make public reply to the President's Yesterday's announcement says:
